

Encore Studios Privacy Policy

Effective February 2019. Last revised January 9th, 2019.

We want to openly disclose how and why Encore Studios collects, uses, and shares information about you when you use our website or when you otherwise interact with us or receive a communication from us. This Privacy Policy applies to all of our services

What We Collect

We collect information directly from you when you visit our site and fill out contact forms.

Personal Information

When you fill out a form we will collect your name, email address and any additional message you would like to include. This is for internal use and will not be publicized information.

Actions You Take

Any actions you take, such as submitting a form or sharing content from our site to an external site is documented through Google Analytics.

Information Collected Automatically

When you access our website, we may automatically collect information about you. This includes:

Log and Usage Data

This could include your IP address, user-agent string, browser type, operating system, referral URL's, device information, pages visited, links clicked, requested URL, hardware settings and search terms.

Information collected from cookies and similar technologies

We may receive information from cookies, which are pieces of data your browser stores and sends back to us when making requests, and similar technologies. We use this information to improve your experience, understand user activity, personalize content and advertisements, and improve the quality of our website.

Location Information

We may receive and process information about your location.

Information collected from integrations

We also may receive information about you, including log and usage data and cookie information, from third-party websites that integrate our website, including our embeds, buttons, and advertising technology.

How We Use Your Info

- Provide, maintain, and improve our website;
- Research and develop new services;
- Help protect the safety of site users
- Send you technical notices, updates, security alerts, invoices and other support and administrative messages;
- Provide customer service;
- Communicate with you about products, services, offers, promotions, and events, and provide other news and information we think will be of interest to you
- Monitor and analyze trends, usage, and activities in connection with our website; and
- Personalize the website and provide advertisements, content and features that match user profiles or interests.

How Info About You Is Shared

- When you send private messages the recipients of those messages will be able to see the content of your message, your name, and the date and time the message was sent. Moderators may elect to have messages forwarded to their email accounts and, as a result, any messages received by these moderators will be subject to the terms and policies of the moderator's email provider.
- We offer social sharing features that let you share content or actions you take on our site with other media. Your use of these features enables the sharing of certain information with your friends or the public, depending on the settings you establish with the third party that provides the social sharing feature. For more information about the purpose and scope of data collection and processing in connection with social sharing features, please visit the privacy policies of the third parties that provide these social sharing features (e.g., Tumblr, Facebook, and Twitter).
- To comply with the law. We may share information in response to a request for information if we believe disclosure is in accordance with, or required by, any applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request, including, but not limited to, meeting national security or law enforcement requirements. To the extent the law allows it, we will attempt to provide you with prior notice before disclosing your information in response to such a request.
- In an emergency. We may share information if we believe it's necessary to prevent imminent and serious bodily harm to a person.
- To enforce our policies and rights. We may share information if we believe your actions are inconsistent with our user agreements or to protect the rights, property, and safety of ourselves and others.
- With your consent. We may share information about you with your consent or at your direction.
- Aggregated or de-identified information. We may share information about you that has been aggregated or anonymized such that it cannot reasonably be used to identify you.

Ads and Analytics Partners

We may partner with third-party advertisers, ad networks, and analytics providers to deliver advertising and content targeted to your interests and to better understand your use of the Services. These third parties may collect information sent by your computer, browser, or mobile device in response to a request for content, such as unique identifiers, your IP address, or other information about your computer or device. For example:

Advertisers and Ad Networks

Our ad partners and ad networks may use cookies and related technologies to collect information when ads are delivered to you on our site but we will not release any of your personal information.

Analytics Partners

We use analytics partners (such as Google Analytics) to help analyze usage and traffic for our Services. As an example, we may use analytics partners to analyze and measure, in the aggregate, the number of unique visitors to our Services.

Other Information

Information Security

We take measures to help protect information about you from loss, theft, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. For example, we use HTTPS while information is being transmitted. We also enforce technical and administrative access controls to limit which of our employees have access to non-public personal information.

Data Retention

We store the information we collect for as long as it is necessary for the purpose(s) for which we originally collected it. We may retain certain information for legitimate business purposes or as required by law.

Changes to this Policy

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we do, we will let you know by revising the date at the top of the policy. If we make a change to this policy that, in our sole discretion, is material, we will provide you with additional notice (such as adding a statement to r/announcements, the front page of the Services or sending you a notification). We encourage you to review the Privacy Policy whenever you access or use our website or otherwise interact with us to stay informed about our information practices and the ways you can help protect your privacy. By continuing to use our site after Privacy Policy changes go into effect, you agree to be bound by the revised policy.
